

“She answers questions in a way that makes the material easier to understand and explains the concepts discussed in lecture really well. She puts forth effort to make sure everyone understands the material.”

“In my three years at Pitt, I have never had a recitation teacher as wonderful as Alessandra.”

“She made the classroom comfortable and inviting, and was extremely considerate of her students. As one of two girls in my recitation section, she emailed both of us to make sure we felt comfortable in a classroom full of males. Her reaching out to me was incredibly thoughtful and meant a lot to me.”

“Alessandra explained all the material so clearly and thoroughly, going to recitation every week really helped me understand concepts from class that I wasn't sure about.”

“Very knowledgeable about the topic. Enthusiastic about teaching. She was also very approachable.”

“She was very organized and tried to keep everything in perspective of the course. She truly wanted to help us understand the material.”

“Created an environment where students can voice their opinions w/o judgment.”

“Alessandra was extremely fair and always willing to help us with papers or better understanding a concept.”

“She maintained a friendly environment that made me feel comfortable to ask questions.”

“You can clearly tell that Alessandra is passionate about Philosophy and that she cares about the students' learning.”

“I liked her organized approach and the way the class was structured. It felt comfortable and laid back but at the same time it was organized and very informative. I learned a lot.”

“Philosophy could be a hard subject to keep students engaged but she did an awesome job picking interesting topics with arguments that challenged the way you think about life.”

“I felt that I was not only learning and understanding the material, but also gaining comprehensive skills which would further benefit my continued education in the subject and throughout life.”
